AS THE TIME COMES

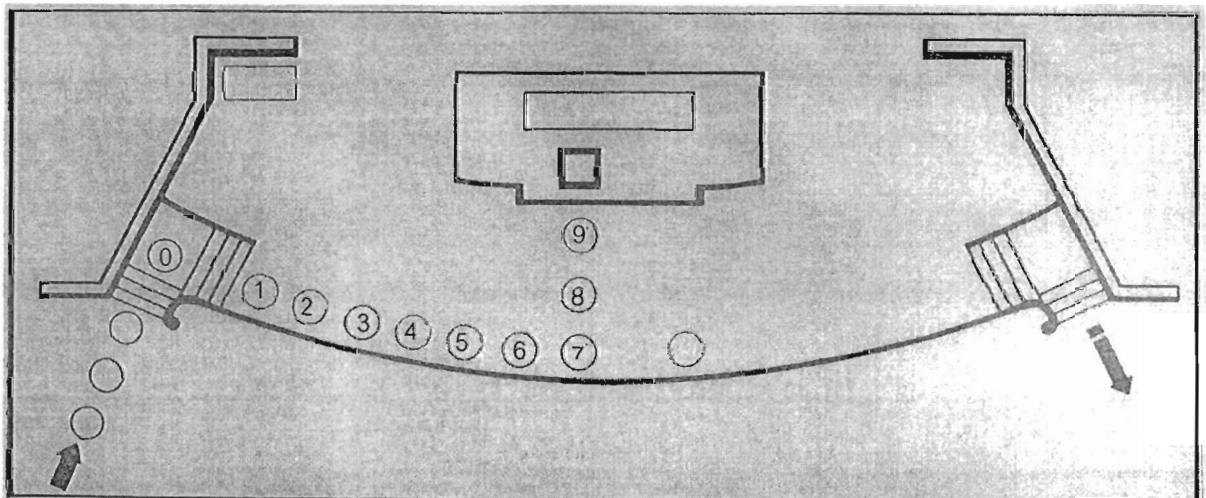

Graduates will be given a signal to rise from their seats. The lecturer in charge will raise his/her arm as a signal for you to stand up, he/she will pause for few seconds to make sure that all graduates have risen, then, he/she will turn his/her hand and lower the arm as a signal for taking a bow or courtesy. The signal will be given row by row.

APPROACHING THE STAGE

After paying respects to Her Royal Highness, each graduate will turn left and start moving from his/her seat to form a line and get ready to receive the diploma. Graduates must be in line approaching the stage.

ON THE STAGE

There are ten positions on stage plus one on the platform. Each point will be marked except for point No. 10.

There are approximately two steps between each position. When graduates step onto the stage they should make sure that they turn themselves facing the Princess who is seated at the center of the stage. Each one on stage will move in rhythm synchronizing each pause and each step. As one person moves from one point to another, the next in line will take over his/her position consecutively.

RECEIVING THE DIPLOMA

Point 7 is right in front of Her Royal Highness, as graduates move from Point 7 to 8, they must look at the mark of point 8. As they step on the mark (point No. 8), they must take a bow or courtesy immediately. Then graduates will take another two steps to point 9. THIS IS THE MOST IMPORTANT SPOT. Graduates must be sure that they are right at the mark (point No. 9), stand straight and look at the diploma as given by the Princess. Then, raise his/her right arm to the edge of the diploma, take hold the diploma and then, fold your right arm to put the diploma attached to your chest.

All together, graduates must take bow or courtesy 5 times throughout the entire process. First, when they stand up from their seats; twice on stage, at point No. 8 and 10 after receiving the diploma. The forth one is before entering the row on their return to their seats and the fifth one is at the seats right before sitting down.

OATH TAKING CEREMONY

After the last graduate receives his/her diploma and descends from stage, all graduates must take part in oath-taking ceremony. One graduate will lead the ceremony, as they walk from the side of the auditorium approaching the microphone, all graduates must stand up and take a bow or courtesy.

Then, all will repeat the oath after the leader sentence by sentence. At the end, graduates must take another bow or courtesy and wait for the royal speech. After the royal speech, another bow or courtesy must be taken by each graduate.

THE END OF THE CEREMONY

After the speech, the Royal Anthem will be played. At the end of the song, all take a bow or courtesy. Then, the Princess will pay homage to the Bhuddha image. As she turns to face the graduates in the auditorium, all must take a bow or courtesy once again to pay their respect. Her Royal Highness will then leave the stage; and this marks the end of the ceremony in the auditorium.
